

Matteo Rauzi biography

After carrying out his studies at the Politecnico of Milan in Italy, Matteo Rauzi obtained a PhD degree from the University of Aix-Marseille, France. He then joined the EMBL Heidelberg in Germany for a postdoc supported by the EMBO-Marie Curie and HFSP Long-Term fellowships. Since 2016 he is group leader at the University Côte d'Azur in Nice, France. Matteo Rauzi is a recipient of the ATIP-Avenir and the HFSP Career Development Award and he is Research Director at the French National Center of Scientific Research (CNRS).